HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, pursuant to the provisions of the "Natural Products Marketing (British Columbia) Act," has been pleased to establish the scheme set out hereunder for the marketing of milk and milk products produced in a described area of British Columbia.

SCHEME TO REGULATE THE MARKETING OF MILK AND PRODUCTS PROCESSED OR MANUFACTURED WHOLLY OR CHIEFLY FROM MILK AND PRODUCED IN A DESCRIBED AREA OF THE PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

1. The scheme shall be known as the "Milk Marketing Scheme of the Lower Mainland of British Columbia."

Interpretation.

(a.) The "Act" means "Natural Products Marketing (British Columbia) Act," chapter 38, Statutes of British Columbia, 1934, and chapter 74, Statutes of British Columbia, 1936, and any amendments thereto;

(b.) "Area to which the scheme relates" means those portions of the New Westminster and Yale Land Districts, in the Province of British Columbia, known as the "'T.B. Free' Restricted Area" as set forth in Order in Council dated the 15th day of February, 1926, and published in Volume 59 of the Canada Gazette at page 2377, and therein described as follows: Commencing at a point on the easterly boundary of the Dominion Government Railway Belt where it is intersected by the northerly boundary of Township 11, Range 23; thence west along the north boundaries of Township 11, Ranges 23 to 30, inclusive, west of 6th meridian, to the west boundary of the Railway Belt; thence southerly and westerly following the westerly and northerly boundaries of the Railway Belt to the north-west corner of the Railway Belt; thence west to the shore of Howe Sound; thence southerly through Howe Sound and passing to the east of all the islands in the said Sound to the Gulf of Georgia; thence through said Gulf of Georgia to the International Boundary; thence easterly along the International Boundary to the point where it is intersected by the easterly boundary of the Dominion Government Railway Belt; thence northerly along said easterly boundary of said Railway Belt to the point of commencement:

- (c.) "Dealer" includes a person, firm, or corporation purchasing milk for resale:
- (d.) "Manufactured product" means a product processed or manufactured wholly or chiefly from milk:
- (e.) "Marketing" includes buying and selling, shipping for sale or storage, and offering for sale, and the transportation of the regulated product in any manner by any person:
- (f.) "Marketing Board" means the Lower Mainland Dairy Products Board authorized to administer this scheme:
- (g.) "Milch cow" means a cow kept for milking purposes, but does not include a heifer which has never calved:
- (h.) "Milk" means cow's milk and shall include cream:
- (i.) "Minister" means the Minister of Agriculture for the Province of British Columbia:
- (j.) "Producer" means a person producing within the area to which the scheme relates milk for sale in fluid form or for manufacturing purposes:
- (k.) "Producer vendor" means a producer who is legally qualified to bottle, sell, and distribute his own milk to consumers:
- (l.) "Provincial Board" means the British Columbia Marketing Board:
- (m.) "Registered" means registered under this scheme, and "registration" shall be construed accordingly:
- (n.) "Regulated product" means milk or manufactured products as defined herein:
- (o.) "Shipper" includes a group of producers joined in corporate form:
- (p.) "Vehicle" includes any motor-vehicle, wagon, railway-car, ship, boat, or other thing in or on which the regulated product can be transported:
- (q.) Wherever the masculine or singular is used, the same shall be construed as meaning the feminine or plural where the context so requires; and wherever the word "person" is used it shall be construed as meaning and including any person, partnership, firm, or corporation, or any person authorized in writing by a partnership, firm, or corporation to act on their behalf.

Application.

3. This scheme shall apply to all persons producing, processing, manufacturing, or marketing the regulated product in the area to which the scheme relates.

Purpose.

4. The purpose and intent of the scheme is to provide for the effective regulation and control in any respect or in all respects of the marketing of the regulated product within the area to which the scheme relates, including the prohibiting of such marketing in whole or in part.

Constitution and Election of Marketing Board.

5. There shall be a Marketing Board named the "Lower Mainland Dairy Products Board," and it shall have authority to administer this scheme.

6. The Marketing Board shall consist of three members.

7. The Marketing Board, up to and including the 31st day of March, 1937, shall consist of: Messrs. William J. Park, Pitt Meadows, B.C.; William T. McArthur, Pitt Meadows, B.C.; and Thomas M. Edwards, Chilliwack, B.C.

8. All subsequent Marketing Boards shall be constituted in the following manner:—

- (a.) One member shall be nominated by the Minister and two shall be elected by registered producers, and all three members shall be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council as of the 1st day of April in the year of appointment. Members shall hold office for a period of one year and shall be eligible for reappointment or re-election:
- (b.) An election of two members of the Marketing Board shall be held not later than March 15th, 1937, and not later than March 15th in each year thereafter:
- (c.) The Marketing Board shall make all arrangements for conducting the election, subject to the approval of the Provincial Board, and shall fix a date for nominations and fix a date for election. At least ten days' notice of the time and place for receiving nominations shall be given by mail to each registered producer, accompanied by a nomination form:
- (d.) Nominations shall be in writing and shall be signed by at least two registered producers and the nominee, and shall be deposited with the Marketing Board not later than the date fixed for receiving nominations:
- (e.) In the event of not more than two candidates being nominated within the period fixed for receiving nominations, the two nominated shall be declared by the Marketing Board to be elected by acclamation. In the event of more than two candidates being nominated, the Marketing Board shall forward by mail to each registered producer at least fourteen days' notice of time and places of election: Provided that the date of election shall be not less than fourteen days and not more than twenty days after the date fixed for receiving nominations:
- (f.) All voting shall be by ballot and must be done in person, and each person voting must vote for two candidates, no more and no less, otherwise the ballot shall be deemed a spoiled ballot, and the two candidates receiving the two highest number of votes cast at the election shall be declared elected:
- (g.) A producer shall be deemed to have received any notice under this section on the date on which he would have received the notice in the ordinary course of mailing. Failure to receive a nomination-paper or notice of a nomination or notice of an election shall not invalidate an election.

9. The head office of the Marketing Board shall be in the City of Vancouver, B.C.

10. The Marketing Board shall have power within the area to which the scheme relates to regulate and control in any respect or in all respects the marketing of the regulated product, including the prohibiting of such marketing in whole or in part, and without limiting the generality thereof shall have the following powers:—

- (a.) To regulate the time and place at which and to designate the agency through which the regulated product shall be marketed; to determine the manner of distribution, the quantity and quality, grade or class of the regulated product that shall be marketed by any person at any time, and to prohibit the marketing of any grade, quality, or class of the regulated product:
- (b.) To determine from time to time the quantity, quality, grade, or class of the regulated product which producers or any particular producer or group of producers shall market on the fluid, manufactured, surplus, or any other available market:
- (c.) To prohibit the marketing of the regulated product except through the agency or agencies designated:
- (d.) To authorize any agency to purchase the regulated product marketed through it or any part thereof, and to prohibit the sale of such regulated product otherwise than to such agency:
- (e.) To prescribe, regulate, and control the duties, rights, and operations of an agency or a shipper:
- (f.) To prohibit an agency or shipper from exercising undue discrimination against any producer or dealer:
- (g.) To fix the price or prices, maximum price or prices, minimum price or prices, or both maximum and minimum prices at which the regulated product or any grade or class thereof may be sold in the area to which the scheme relates, and may fix different prices for different sections of the said area:
- (h.) To require all persons engaged in the production of milk within the area to which the scheme relates to affiliate with a shipper licensed by the Board:
- (i.) To require all persons engaged in the production of milk within the area to which the scheme relates to ship and market the regulated product through a shipper licensed by the Board:
- (j.) To require any or all persons engaged in the production, processing, manufacturing, or marketing of the regulated product to register with and obtain licences from the Board:
- (k.) To fix and collect annual, quarterly, or monthly licence fees from any or all persons producing, processing, manufacturing, or marketing the regulated product; and for this purpose to classify such persons into groups, and fix the licence fees payable by the members of the different groups in different amounts:
- (l.) To cancel any licence for violation of any provisions of the scheme, or of any order of the Marketing Board, or of the regulations:
- (m.) To cancel the registration and licence of any producer who for a period of three consecutive months fails to ship milk for sale: Provided that such cancellation shall not prevent the person whose licence has been cancelled from applying for reregistration:
- (n.) To require full information relating to the production, processing, and marketing of the regulated product from all persons engaged therein; and to require periodic returns to be made by such persons, and to inspect the books and premises of such persons:
- (o.) To require the person in charge of any vehicle in which the regulated product could be transported to permit any member or employee of the Board to search the vehicle:
- (p.) To seize and dispose of any of the regulated product kept, transported, or marketed in violation of any order of the Board:

- (q.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Board may think fit for the purpose of carrying out the objects of the scheme, but at no time shall the aggregate financial obligation of the Board incurred by borrowing exceed $15,000:
- (r.) To hypothecate, assign, draw, make, sign, endorse, discount, and issue bills of exchange, cheques, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:
- (s.) To expend the funds of the Board in any manner for the proper operation of the scheme:
- (t.) To pay the preliminary and organization expenses in connection with the establishing of the scheme:
- (u.) To pay the operating and necessary expenses of the Board:
- (v.) To exempt from any determination or order any person or class of persons engaged in the production, processing, manufacturing, or marketing of the regulated product or any class, variety, or grade of such product:
- (w.) To make such orders, rules, and regulations as are deemed by the Board necessary or advisable to regulate effectively the marketing of the regulated product, and to amend or revoke the same.

11. No member of the Marketing Board acting in good faith shall be personally liable for any acts of the Marketing Board or of the members thereof acting as such.

12. The Marketing Board shall cause to be kept at its head office a register known as the "Register of Producers," in which the names, addresses, and occupations of all producers registered shall be entered, and the Marketing Board shall revise the said register from time to time.

13. No act, order, or regulation of the Marketing Board shall be held or deemed to be invalid, nor shall any act of the Marketing Board be restrained by injunction or otherwise, by reason only of any irregularity or defect in the election or appointment of the Marketing Board or any member thereof, or in the proceedings of the Marketing Board, if, in the opinion of the Judge or Court or other tribunal before whom the matter may come for consideration, there has been a substantial compliance with the provisions governing the election or appointment of the Marketing Board or governing such proceedings, notwithstanding such irregularity or defect.

WATER NOTICES.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

DEPARTMENT OF LANDS (WATER RIGHTS BRANCH).

Certificate of Approval of Undertaking.

WHEREAS the Columbia Power Company, Limited, is a Company empowered to construct, maintain, and operate works for the generation, transmission, and distribution of electric energy:

And whereas the said Company has made application to the Comptroller of Water Rights for a licence to authorize the diversion and use of 5 cubic feet of water a second from Chapman Creek, in Vancouver Water District, for the generation of electric energy:

And whereas the Company has petitioned for the approval of its undertaking relative to the aforesaid application:

And whereas it appears in the public interest to grant the prayer of the Company's petition:

This is to certify that the undertaking of the Columbia Power Company, Limited, relative to the diversion and use of 5 cubic feet of water a second from Chapman Creek, in Vancouver Water District, for power purpose, as the said undertaking is outlined in the petition filed by the said Company with the Comptroller of Water Rights on August 10th, 1936, is hereby approved, subject to the provisions of the “Water Act” and to the following conditions:—

(a.) The term of every licence that may be issued in pursuance of the Company's above-mentioned application shall be limited to expire on December 31st, 1961.

(b.) The construction of the works necessary to divert, convey, and use the water of Chapman Creek shall be begun by May 1st, 1937.

(c.) The construction of the said works shall be carried out to the satisfaction of the Comptroller of Water Rights.

(d.) The territory within which the Company may sell and distribute the electric energy generated from the water of Chapman Creek comprises that part of British Columbia lying within 9 miles of the south-east corner of District Lot 1321, New Westminster Land District, not including any part of Keats Island.

This certificate does not authorize the diversion of any water or the construction of any works, nor is it an approval of the plans of any works.

The objects of the Society are:—

(a.) To bring together all persons interested or engaged in the manufacture, distribution, or sale of red-cedar shingles and allied products, and to promote the welfare of those so interested or engaged within the Province of British Columbia:

(b.) To gather and disseminate information upon the supply, market conditions, production, and distribution of red-cedar shingles, shingle-stains, stained shingles, staining materials, and logs and shingle-bolts:

(c.) To establish a Shingle Inspection Bureau and issue grading rules for any and all species of red-cedar shingles manufactured by the members, and to supervise the grading practice at mills of its members:

(d.) To provide general traffic service for its members:

(e.) To promote the marketing and sale of red-cedar shingles in Canada and elsewhere, and to enlarge the market and demand for shingles in such manner as the Society or its directors may deem expedient, and particularly by advertising in newspapers and periodicals of all descriptions, and by the distribution of advertising matter and the display of advertising of any kind, and research:

(f.) To promote uniformity of accounting methods amongst its members:

(g.) To make such arrangements as the Society shall deem expedient with similar societies, associations, or corporations, within and without the Province of British Columbia, for the interchange of information relative to the shingle and allied industries:

(h.) To originate and promote improvements in the law and to support and oppose alterations therein, and to effect improvements in administration, and for the purposes aforesaid petition any legislative body, any city or municipal authorities, and to take such other steps and proceedings as may be deemed expedient, and generally to watch over and protect the interests of the members of the Society:

(i.) To take up, on behalf of any member, legal or other proceedings involving any matter of common interest to the Society as a whole:

(j.) To provide facilities for checking the weights of red-cedar shingles shipped by rail:

(k.) To advance the working conditions of the employees of the Society members, more particularly by educating them in "safety-first" precautions:

(m.) To provide the ways and means of raising the necessary money to pay and defray expenses incurred in carrying out the objects of the Society, and to make, in accordance with the by-laws, assessments on the members of the Society in such amounts and at such times as the directors may determine; such assessments, when made, to constitute a debt due to the Society by the respective members:

(n.) To apply for and obtain trade-marks and other registration or recognition under the "Unfair Competition Act, 1932":

(o.) To enter into contracts or agreements with any person, partnership, society, or company, whether a member of this Society or not, relating to the conduct and improvement of the business of manufacturing and dealing in red-cedar shingles and allied products, respecting any market:

(p.) To facilitate the manufacturing, selling, and distributing of red-cedar shingles by having its members abide by fair trade practices as established by the Society:

(q.) To co-operate with any other person, society, association, or corporation, whether within or without British Columbia, for the carrying-out of any of the objects of the Society:

(r.) To do all such other things as the Society may think conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects.

(c.) To carry on the business of manufacturers, importers, exporters, and dealers in sash, doors, screens, glass, mouldings, casings, panel-work, counters, shelves, show-cases, dressed lumber, and all other finished products of lumber and timber, and to contract for, erect, place in position as required, or otherwise deal with the same:

(d.) To buy, sell, exchange, and deal in, either by wholesale or retail, or both, all kinds of provisions, commodities, products, whether manufactured or unmanufactured, and goods and merchandise of all kinds, and to establish and carry on shops and stores for the purpose of buying, selling, and dealing in such goods, and generally to carry on the business of a trading company, either wholesale or retail:

(e.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire water rights or privileges and any timber lands and timber and timber limits by lease, licence, or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber, and to work, develop, maintain, and turn the same to account as the Company may see fit:

(f.) To buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in plant machinery, implements, conveniences, creosote and other chemicals and things capable of being used in connection with any of the businesses of the Company, or required by workmen or others employed by the Company:

(g.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise land, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, situate in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining offices, flats, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and to subdivide, sell, lease, exchange, rent, mortgage, or otherwise charge, deal with, or encumber the said lands or any interest therein:

(h.) To purchase, charter, hire, build, or otherwise acquire and use scows, tug-boats, steel and other ships or vessels, or any shares or interest in the same, and generally to carry on the business of carriers, shipping agents, warehousemen, and forwarding agents:

(i.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of the Company at par or at a premium, fully or partly paid up:

(j.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(k.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any part of the property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined, and in particular to lend money to customers or other persons having dealings with the Company, and to take security therefor on either real or personal property:

(m.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the property of the Company or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other instruments:

(n.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventures, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(o.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(p.) To divide any of the assets of the Company, in kind, among the members, or any class or classes of the members, or any individual member of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(q.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized and to establish local agencies and branch businesses in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(r.) To do all such things as are or may be deemed to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, exchange, or otherwise mines and mineral claims or properties, placer leases, mineral leases, mining leases, oil leases, prospects, licences, options, mining and mineral and oil rights of every description, options or authorities, and other mines, lands, buildings, mineral properties, mining, water, and other rights and metalliferous lands in any part of the world, and to work, develop, operate, turn to account, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of or deal with the same, and either solely or jointly with others to carry on the business of miners of every description:

(d.) To prospect for, open, manage, work, explore, develop, and maintain gold, silver, tin, copper, lead, coal, iron, petroleum, natural gas, and other mines, mineral and other rights, properties, and works, and to carry on and conduct the business of recovering, raising, crushing, washing, smelting, reducing, and amalgamating ores, metals, and minerals of whatsoever nature, and to render the same merchantable and fit for use, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in minerals, dredging equipment, plant, timber, machinery, implements, conveniences, provisions, and things:

(e.) To carry on any other business of a similar nature or any business which may, in the opinion of the directors, be conveniently carried on by this Company, and to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(f.) To dig, drill, or bore for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, reduce, refine, amalgamate, assay, analyse, and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, coal, oil, shale, clay, petroleum, natural gas, and any other ore, deposit, metal, or mineral whatsoever, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in the same or any product thereof, and to engage in any branch of mining, smelting, milling, and refining minerals, and generally to carry on the business of a mining and development company:

(g.) To carry on in any part of the world any one or more of the businesses of prospecting for, producing, dealing in, transporting, storing and distributing, and manufacturing petroleum, carbon oils, gases, ores, and other mineral substances, and the products, by-products, or derivatives thereof; and to make, acquire, produce, hold, operate, use, dispose of, and otherwise deal in and with the said substances and products, rights to and interests in lands and other properties from which they may be derived, drilling, pumping, mining, milling, reducing, refining, smelting, and other plants, gold-dredging and other equipment or apparatus for producing, manufacturing, or otherwise working such substances and products; pipe-lines, pumping-stations, tank-cars, tank-ships, boats, barges, towing-boats, and other conveyances; tanks, terminals, docks, and any other rights and properties, real, personal, or mixed, which may be necessary or convenient to the conduct of any of the said businesses:

(h.) To prospect for, explore, drill for, produce, and accumulate petroleum, oil, and gas, and to buy, lease, or otherwise acquire and sell or otherwise dispose of oil and gas rights, privileges, lands, and leases of all kinds and descriptions:

(i.) To buy or otherwise acquire and sell or otherwise dispose of any interest in oil, royalties, metals, mines, mineral properties and other properties, real, personal, or mixed, of a speculative or non-speculative nature:

(j.) To carry out any transactions or operations whatsoever which may be lawfully undertaken and carried out by capitalists, brokers, merchants, underwriters, financiers, or concessionaires, and to carry on a general financial business and general financial operations of all kinds in any part of the world, and to undertake or aid in any enterprise:

(k.) To carry on the business of a transportation company generally, and to acquire by purchase, lease, charter-party, contract, or otherwise steam boats, tug-boats, sailing-vessels, aeroplanes, hydroplanes, or any other kind of boats or vessels or planes whatsoever, and to build and construct any such kind of boats, vessels, or planes deemed necessary or expedient for the purposes and objects of the Company; and to use, maintain, or operate any or all of such boats and vessels for the transportation of equipment and supplies and for the conveying away of the products of the Company's properties, mines, and mineral lands, or for any other purposes, and to acquire and hold shares in any railway, tramway, airway, steamship, or other transportation company:

(l.) Upon any issue of shares, debentures, or other securities of the Company, to employ brokers, commission agents, and underwriters, and to provide for the remuneration of such persons for their services by payment in cash or by the issue of shares, debentures, or other securities of the Company, or by granting of options to take the same or in any other manner allowed by law:

(m.) To purchase or otherwise acquire all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any company, society, syndicate, partnership, or person formed for all or any part of the purposes within the objects of this Company, and to conduct and carry on or liquidate and wind up any such business, and to purchase, take on lease or otherwise acquire for the purposes of the Company any estates, lands, buildings, easements, or other interest in real estate, and to sell, let on lease, or otherwise dispose of or grant rights over any real property belonging to the Company:

(n.) To take, have, use, and enjoy all the powers conferred by the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia, or any similar Act passed or regulation made by any Government of any other Province, Territory, or country, including any Statute or regulation passed or promulgated by any de facto authority having control in any part of the world; and to acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and to apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied; and to acquire, construct, operate, and maintain waterworks and hydraulicking-works of every nature, and to distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used; to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by acquiring, constructing, erecting, operating, and maintaining any and all improvements of every sort whatsoever necessary for said purposes, including the diverting of the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, and for that purpose to construct, lay, and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, or other conduit pipes for the development of power:

(o.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, and to construct, operate, maintain, or alter, trails, roads, ways, tramways, reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, watercourses, canals, aqueducts, pipelines, wells, tanks, bridges, wharves, piers, mills, pumping plants, dredges and gold-dredging equipment of all kinds, factories, foundries, furnaces, coke-ovens, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, refining-works, hydraulic, electrical, and other works and appliances, power devices and plants of every kind, laboratories, warehouses, boarding-houses, dwellings, buildings, machinery, plant, and other works and conveniences, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, provisions, implements, chattels, and effects:

(p.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any concessions, decrees, and contracts for or in relation to the construction, execution, carrying-out, equipment, improvement, management, administration, or control of public works and conveniences of all kinds, and to undertake, execute, carry out, dispose of, or otherwise turn to account the same:

(q.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any invention that may seem to the Company capable of being profitably dealt in; and to use, exercise, develop, grant, license in all respects, or vend or otherwise turn to account all or any of such patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concession, and the like; and with a view to the working and development of the same to carry on any business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which the Company may think calculated, directly or indirectly, to effectuate these objects:

(r.) To pay for any property, rights, or services acquired by the Company either in cash or shares, with or without preferred or deferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital or otherwise, or by any securities which the Company has power to issue or partly to issue, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally upon such terms as the directors may determine, including granting options of taking up shares of the Company:

(s.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(t.) To establish or promote or concur in establishing or promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on of any business or operation which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stock, or securities of and guarantee the payment of any securities issued by or any other obligations of any such company:

(u.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(v.) To enter into any partnership or any joint-purse arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventure, or co-operation with or agency for any company, firm, or person carrying on or engaged in, or proposing to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction within the objects of the Company, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(w.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(x.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(y.) To draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, bills of lading, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities:

(z.) To invest its money and generally to lend and advance its money to any person or companies without security, or upon such securities and terms and subject to such conditions as may seem expedient, and to guarantee the performance of any contract by any person or company:

(aa.) Generally to engage in any branch of mining, smelting, milling, and refining minerals:

(cc.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, present and future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company; to issue debentures, mortgage debentures, and debenture stock, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable:

(dd.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company or any proceeds of sale or disposal of any property of the Company, and for such purpose to distinguish and separate capital from profits, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(ee.) To procure the Company to be registered, incorporated, or otherwise duly constituted, if necessary or advisable, according to the law of the United Kingdom or of any State or dependency of the United Kingdom or any foreign or other country:

(ff.) To enter into any arrangements or contracts with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(gg.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit any of the employees or ex-employees of the Company or any of the dependents or connections of any such persons, and to grant to any such persons, dependents, or connections pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance thereof respectively, and generally to subscribe or guarantee money to or for charitable or benevolent objects, or to or for any exhibition, or to or for any public, general, or useful object, and to make gifts or donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever:

(hh.) To obtain any provisional order, Ordinance, or Act of Parliament, or any Act or Ordinance of or grant or licence from any foreign or other Government, State, Legislature, or municipality for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(ii.) To appoint from time to time, either with full or restricted powers of subdelegation and either with or without remuneration, agents, attorneys, local or managing directors, or other persons or corporations under power of attorney or otherwise within or outside of British Columbia for the purpose of carrying out and completing all or any of the objects of the Company as mentioned in this memorandum of association, and of arranging, conducting, or managing the business or businesses of the Company or any matter or concern whatsoever in which the Company is now or may from time to time be or become or be about to become interested or concerned, with the same or more limited powers than the directors of the Company have, and to delegate such powers of appointment to any person or persons, company or corporation, and from time to time to revoke and cancel all or any such appointments or delegations, and to remove any person or corporation appointed thereunder:

(jj.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(kk.) To transfer to or otherwise cause to be vested in any company or person or persons all or any of the lands and property of the Company, to be held in trust for the Company or on such trusts for working, developing, or disposing of the same as may be considered expedient:

(ll.) To pay the costs, charges, and expenses preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment, and registration of the Company, and to remunerate, by commission, brokerage, granting of options of taking up shares of the Company, or otherwise, any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in relation to the formation and establishment of the Company or the conduct of its business, or placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in or debentures or other securities of the Company:

(mm.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them; and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(nn.) To enter into and carry into effect, either with or without modification, an agreement, a draft of which has already been prepared and is expressed to be made between John S. W. Pugh and Sherwood Lett of the one part and the Company of the other part, a copy whereof has for the purpose of identification

(oo.) To enter into and carry into effect, either with or without modification, an agreement, a draft of which has already been prepared and is expressed to be made between James Drummond Dole, Lawrence Arthur Glover, and David Robert Blair of the one part and the Company of the other part, a copy of which has for the purpose of identification been endorsed with the signature of Donald Gordon Marshall, a solicitor of the Supreme Court of British Columbia:

(pp.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause, when not applied to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, political, mercantile, or otherwise, whether incorporated or not incorporated, whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, whether existing or hereafter to be formed.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-myl W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

PROVINCIAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

"MARRIAGE ACT, 1930." (Chap. 41, Sec. 37.)

WHEREAS Anthony Samuel Megale and Louise Altamare, both of Natal, in the Province of British Columbia, were, by banns duly proclaimed as required by the provisions of the "Marriage Act," purported to be joined in matrimony by the Rev. S. Mayer at St. Michael's Church, Michel, in the Province of British Columbia, on the 19th day of August, 1936:

And whereas it appears that the said Rev. S. Mayer was not authorized under the provisions of the "Marriage Act" to perform the ceremony of marriage between the said parties:

And whereas evidence, by statutory declarations, has been filed with me under the terms of section 37 of the "Marriage Act":

Now, therefore, I, the undersigned, by virtue of the powers in me vested by the said section 37, do hereby declare the requirements of the "Marriage Act" as to the registration of the said Rev. S. Mayer to solemnize marriages to be waived in respect of the said ceremony performed by him as aforesaid; and I do hereby further, by virtue of the said powers, declare that the said marriage shall be deemed to be and is and has been from the date of the solemnization thereof a lawful and valid marriage.

Given under my hand at Victoria, British Columbia, this 27th day of October, 1936.
